The author and committee chair/or director each declare that the following conditions have been met:

1. All changes required by the dissertation or thesis committee have been incorporated into the electronic manuscript; the respective changes have been incorporated and submitted into the Electronic Thesis/Dissertation website (ProQuest Dissertation Publishing) at <http://www.etsadmin.com/nmsuetd> and confirmation of this submission is attached.
2. The manuscript is essentially perfect with regard to its physical condition and form (margins, paper size and quality, spacing, type fonts); the electronic manuscript has been submitted in good form and appropriate format.
3. The electronic manuscript is complete and properly arranged (all appropriate sections are included, and all pages are numbered and in proper order);
4. The electronic manuscript is without errors in the use of language (grammar, spelling, punctuation);
5. The electronic manuscript is complete and meets the program degree requirements for the degree. The electronic manuscript is complete for Graduate School final electronic review and approval.

The Dean of Graduate School will have final authority with regard to the standards of quality listed above. Failure to meet these standards will result in the return of the manuscript to the student, and could be cause for the student's graduation to be delayed.

Electronic approval for the final active submission to ProQuest Dissertation Publishing is subject to the awarding of the students degree from New Mexico State University.
